We want to let you know wherever life leads you,

Don't Quit

When things go wrong, as they sometimes will,
When the road you're trudging seem all up hill,
When the funds are low and the debts are high,
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit,
Rest, if you must— but don't you quit.

Life is queer with its twist and turns,
As every one of us sometimes learns,
And many a failure turns about
When he might have won had he stuck it out;
Don't give up, through the peace seems slow
You might succeed with another blow.

Often, the goal is a nearer than
It seems to a faint and faltering man
Often, the struggler has given up
When he might have captured the victor's cup
And he learned too late; when night slipped down
How close he was to the golden crown.

Success is failure turned inside out:
The silver tint of clouds of doubt;
And you never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seem afar,
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit;
It's when things seem worse that you must not quit.
