9. #132.8 The Spiritual Dynamics of Death And Dying Location: University
This class teaches us that there is more to death than just dying, or grief than just accepting ones condition, there is a desire of the Spiritual believer to continue to abide in the Presence of the Lord. The teachings of all spiritual traditions offer us is the knowledge that even when the worst tragedy and suffering befalls us, there is still hope, there is something that nothing can destroy, or take away from us. There is a fundamental truth, a spiritual essence which lies within us all; the key to unlocking our limitless resources of wisdom and compassion is in understanding the innermost nature of our mind. All of us need to give our love to a dying person. As we will discover for ourselves, the more we can embody the spiritual teachings, the more natural and more effective we will be in giving spiritual care to a dying person. Our presence, by itself, can reassure our dying friend, and evoke in him or her a fundamental confidence and trust, a sense of hope and meaning. By helping others "Facing Death and Finding Hope."

18. #127.211      How To Make The Best Of Times Out Of Your Worst Of Times: Be Hopeful      Location: Hanover B
- The journey towards hopefulness begins with a renewed understanding of the Epistle of 1 Peter, this course will help the student who has a personal knowledge and experience of suffering and persecution, as we examine our current world situation. We as, Christians in the Western world have enjoyed comfortable lives. Our brothers and sisters behind iron and bamboo curtains have suffered for their faith. Now there is every indication that the time is approaching when it will cost us to take a stand for Christ. The only “comfortable” Christian will be a “compromising” Christian, and his comfort will be costly. But God’s message to us is, “Be hopeful! Suffering leads to glory! I can give you all the grace you need to honor “Me” when the going gets tough!” The future is still as bright as the promises of God, so—be hopeful! If you can witness to this than 1 Peter has a message for you: “Be hopeful!”

- 19. #8000      Created to Serve: A Biblical Perspective      Location: Niawga
- The purpose of this class is to revisit the creation recorded in the book of Genesis chapter 1 and 2 understanding that our God is the creator of the universe and worthy to be served. We come to find out how we can invite others who are not servants to enjoy the benefits of Servanthood and Christian Service. We look to the scriptures for our answers. We come to refill our spiritual wells with renewed love, hope, faith, mercy, meekness, a clean heart and grace. When we understand God’s organizational structure for the creation we cannot afford to become lackadaisical in our servanthood. Our existence is more than being saved to serve but we were created to serve. Our GOD with all of His Wisdom and Knowledge laid out a plan for those who are willing to follow Him. The choice is to serve Him or serve “CEASER’S WORLD.”

23. #131.9 Beware Of Religious Imposters

Location: Dunwoody

There are dangerous people and dangerous doctrines abroad, and God's people need to be "Alert". The church is suffering from a false view of separation, as well as a false view of cooperation. Too often we are aiding the enemy and injuring the brotherhood by attitudes and actions that are contrary to God's Word. Peter, John, and Jude can help us exercise discernment and detect the counterfeits that have secretly entered the church. They can also help us discover the false doctrines that these apostates are teaching, doctrines that today are passing for Christian truth. This course will help open the eyes of every person who is seeking God's Truth in this Modernistic world of Apostasies.

24. #115.6 Be Concerned: Making a Difference in Your Lifetime "Restoring An Attitude Of Wonder and Worship"

Location: Hanover E

The twelve books of the Minor Prophets are anything but minor. Spanning 450 years, these writings offer a revealing look into the character, nature and heart of God. Based on six Minor Prophets—Hosea, Joel, Jonah, Nahum, Habakkuk, and Malachi—this study offers rich perspective on how God's plans and purposes intersect in the lives of His people. The truth in God's word illuminates the sinful state of our fallen world. And throughout history that insight has moved believers from conviction to action, to share His truth with a world in need, to burden us with a deep concern for people. But how can we translate that concern into effective ministry? This study explores how their concern for people shaped their life-changing messages of repentance and redemption as the students are encouraged to "Be Concerned: Making a Difference in Your Lifetime."

25. #115.3 Be Exultant: Glorifying God for Who He is; A study of (Psalms 90-150)

Location: Hanover F

This class is the final portion of our studies of the Psalms, as we move forward and higher from "Glorifying God for Who He is" (Psalms 1-89) to "Praising God for His Mighty Works" by "Being Exultant" (psalms 90-150) The Psalms are primarily about God and His relationship to His creation, the nations of the world, Israel, and His believing people.

He is seen as a powerful God as well as a tenderhearted Father, a God who keeps His promises and lovingly cares for His people. The students will learn how to Exult God for who He is in their lives. It will allow a variance of people in a variety of circumstances, learn to cry out to God, praising Him, confessing their sins, and seeking to worship Him in a deeper way. This is a challenge to all who desires to Know God on a deeper and personal level.

#66510 “GETTING HIP TO MISSIONS MATTERS!”

This course is a hybrid course combination of in-class instruction and “hands-on” application, using Biblical accounts/models for the Hip-Hop Age demographics of youth and young adults. The Participants will receive class room instructions during the 2019 Annual Congress of Christian Education Session to illustrate what missions looks like from various perspectives and instill the basics of missions approaches that may be used in the participants' home locations to further develop their framework of thinking and doing missions in contemporary times. “The hands on application” will be directed and supervised by the PNBC Mission within the departmental settings.

Dr. Angelia McMillan

#942.1 PNBC 2019 Revised Prison Ministry

The Progressive National Baptist Convention’s Prison Ministry Project will explore the new and current changes in the world of incarceration and prison reform. The class will explore the duty of the Church as its members are stigmatized by the shame of incarceration by a loved one.

This Seminar will explore what the Bible says about providing Stations of Hope to those affected by incarceration and who are returning home. The participants will better understand than embrace the special topics designed to help in the healing of individuals and families torn apart by crime. Learn how to become a Station of Hope and a Healing Community, one that embraces the prisoner and nurtures and supports both his family and the victims of crime – a community that lives in the spirit.

Dr. DeeDee Coleman
